Our Values

- Save resources - Easy to assemble - Experienced - Knowledge

S Save resources

- ParaLight provides onestop lighting design services
- Customers can put in less R&D resources in designing stage

E Easy to assemble

- Our products are designed as a module instead of separate electronic components
- All the operator has to do is to just insert the module into the right place

E Experienced

- ParaLight have helped designed lighting module with big brands such as HP, Dell, Lenovo, Xiaomi and many more
- For more information, please feel free to contact us

K Knowledge

- As a 30 year old LED manufacturer, ParaLight has extensive knowledge of lighting system and design

Business & Design process

1 Design idea

Schematic diagram Schematic diagram

Customer provide specific design idea

2 3D & Lighting design

3D diagram will be drawn based on design and ParaLight will design the optimal LED layout

3 Optometry simulation & Result

Satisfactory Optometry simulation result will verify ParaLight's lighting and not waste resources for trial & error

4 Mock up sample verification

Verify design idea with mock up sample

5 Mass production & quality control

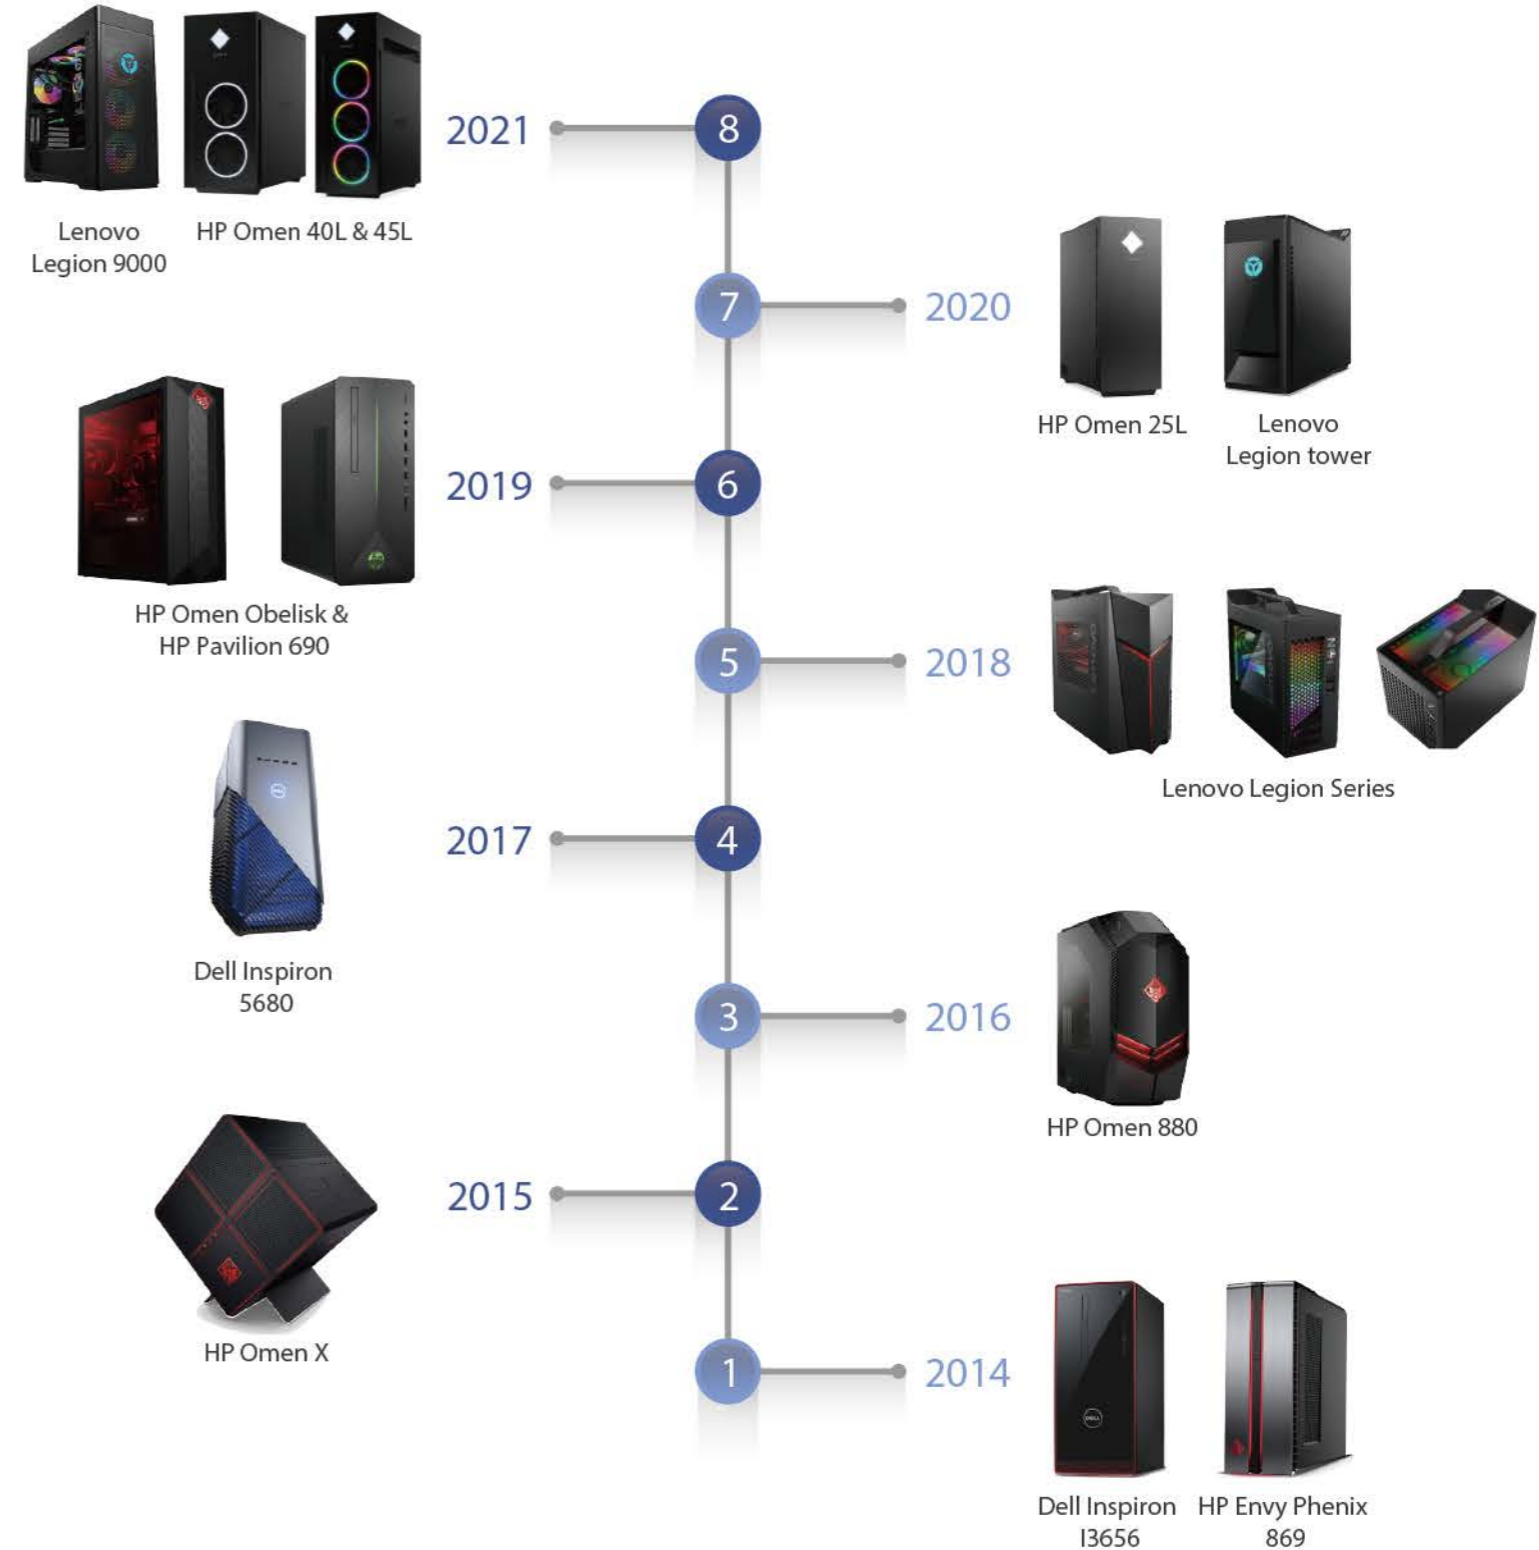

Advance production line

Professional testing equipment

Lighting module product milestone

* Note: ParaLight Electronics designed the lighting module used in the products, not the product itself.
